Our Jewish Heritage Tour of Sydney gives you a window into Jewish life in this beautiful harbourside city.

You will experience the Sydney Jewish Museum to see how Jewish life began here and the impact Jews have made in Australia as well as their input in the war effort. Private tours can be arranged (additional cost)

You will see the majestic Great Synagogue completed in 1883 and then visit modern Central Synagogue, the largest in the Southern hemisphere.

We venture into the local Eastern Suburbs where contemporary Jewish families thrive and you get to see how they live and play.

Next stop *Our Big Kitchen* a benevolent community kitchen started by a rabbi and now helping diverse communities across Sydney.

No itinerary into Jewish Sydney would be complete without a stop in Bondi, a fascinating beachside suburb with a kosher supermarket and Jewish bookstore.
